THE AVALON 51XT4 Linda

Foreword

We, the Senior Class of 1960, have composed this book with the hope that in the future we and others may look back through these pages and remember the many happy years we've spent in New Palestine School.

We, Seniors, Say "Thank You"

Farewell to our teachers of New Palestine liigh
The time has come to say good-bye:
We thought and thought and tacked our brains
And wrote and wrote but all in vain-No way could we find, to express our feelings
For your kindness and your patience which has known no ceilings.
Below are our attempts to accomplish this feat,
We hope, that in no way, we have been indiscreet.

Miss Willis, with her cheerfulness and tact, Taught us English and Latin and also how to act.

Mr. DeMunbrun is a really nice guy, In math and guidance he always rates high.

Mrs. Waltz, with her winning smile, Wields pen and piano in an extraordinary style.

Mr. Banks, a hit with all the guys, Teaches them how to be healthy and wise.

Mrs. Gruber, who is a friend to everyone, Makes English and literature a great deal of fun.

Mr. Cones, gives us all a square deal, Whether it be in sports or behind the driver's training wheel.

Mr. Neeley, our "southern charm" boy, Makes ag, and science the student's joy.

Mr. Rumble, who newly joined the N. P. forces, Is a whiz at teaching commercial courses.

Mrs. Waitt, who guides the home ec. classes, is rated tops by all the lasses.

Mr. Moore, a gentleman of wit, Makes his math classes a sensational hit.

Mr. Laffin, our "music man,"
Brings high bonors to our chorus and band.

Mr. Eckart, a wise and witty man, Teaches social studies with a skillful hand.

Mrs. Wheatley, in her kind, generous way, Makes history and phys. ed. really pay.

Mr. Everson and his traditional cards of white, Through the dark halls of science has shown us the light.

Mr. Stanley, who is new to us this year, Has filled his classes with good cheer.

Mr. Wilson, with his endearing ways, Will be our inspiration throughout our days.

Mr Raymond Laffin

This is one year we seniors will surely never forget. It has been so full of plans for our future. But undoubtedly we couldn't have withstood its trials and tribulations without those kind-hearted sponsors who gave freely, their time and effort to our class

Yes, we the seniors of 1960, thank you. Mr Everson and Mr. Laffin, sincerely

Class Poem

The war was on its way,
And then we came along one day;
We were the soldiers that didn't scare away,
But it could be no other way.

We were born of war moms, who at first feared the bombs; Now it is a missile cone, The future still is not known.

Then came the time to go to school, We thought it was cool, man, cool, And when we made the teachers mad, They found a way to make us sad!

Now it is time to graduate,

A think that we want a transact.

But when we do, we'll be so sad

To an with the analysis and and and analysis.

The Sizzling '80's

The time: 1980

The place: The North Pole

The situation. A trip in Santa's new supersonic sleigh built by the world's greatest engineer, Le is Jacobi, driven by charifeur harry Gundrim. Because sue Basey had nurset Ridolph through his recent battle with pholomonia, while Linda writesell taught the elves 1 w to read and Lt. Coll wilma Jean smith guarded the place, Santa de ided to take them all all ng in Christmas Eve.

On this trip we saw many of our old classmates.

One of the first was R 14, who has a florist shop in S beria where he is specializing it tree stumps. (Dead ones)

In the Belgian Congo we found Darlene and Steve running a great Camera Shop.

Ronnie and Sharon are managing a mission for lost antique dealers in China.

Gale owns the best dairy in Hawaii specializing in pineapple-flavored milk.

A ranch for old war horses is operated by Marvin in New Zealand.

July, Jackie, and Car lyn are driving all over Los Angeles in their 1 25 touring car is asing "Kookie,"

Bob Grigsby runs a successful agency to hunt missing lovers.

Janet and Richard Dye are raising minks in Wisconsin.

Here in Indiana Sandy Jacks in is now in the process of buying the House of James.

Also in Indiana Van. Steve, Dennis, Jun Toon, John Conner, and Beb Young ewn a night club. It was still going strong at 3:00 A.M.

Susan now has a pack of little Browns running around the mechanic shop.

In New York Patty Ortel is designing coats for poodles.

Sandy Kleine has a nonpoly of gas stations along the Amazon for native boats.

In Europe Sara, Dana, and Marilyn are writing a Dear S. D. M. column for the Service Men's Gazette.

To h McNar ara, new in Rome, has just coache i the American Olympic basketball feam to its latest victory.

Judy and Don live in a mansion at the edge of the Mediterranean with their seven children. Troy is also in the Mediterranean trying to raise icebergs.

Paul is now the champion roller skater of the Foreign Legion.

In Egypt we found Larry, Jim Cecil, and Phil, each with his own harem.

We found Bonnie and Jerry operating an altra-in dern motel in the Sahara Desert for tired camel drivers.

Prescilla is working as a counter spy in the Russian Embassy.

On the way hame we distended to station ZERO in the Antarctic where Bill is a very prominent radio announcer.

Our last stop was in Ideland to visit a performance at Patti Richardson's Theatrical School for polar bears.

Sectional Tourney

The New Palestine Dragons played their best basketball of the year in the Sectional Tourney.

After defeating Decatur Central 58 to 53 in a well-played game, they lost to Southport 64 to 59. Southport was the strongest team the Dragons played all year, but the New Palestine boys gave them stiff competition throughout the contest. It was a great team effort, by a fine group of boys
